Essentials® does not provide any warranty for products labeled other than Essentials®. Essentials® will not provide any warranty for products subjected to abnormal use. Abnormal use includes, but is not limited to, abuse, accident, alteration, neglect, and unauthorized or unreasonable use or repairs. This warranty does not cover battery exhaustion, battery leakage or resulting damages thereof, bulb burnout, cases, color finishes, sheathes, or straps. We recommend that you maintain your tools and replace batteries, bulbs, and sheathes as necessary. Essentials® reserves the right to make any changes in construction or design at any time without any obligation in incorporating such changes to tools or equipment previously sold.

In case of battery or bulb exhaustion please replace your batteries or bulb, do not return the flashlight to Essentials®. Essentials® sells a full line of replacement bulbs. If you experience damage from battery leakage please determine which brand of batteries you are using and follow the manufacturer's instructions on how to make a damage claim, do not return the flashlight to Essentials®. Essentials® flashlights are not considered explosive proof. They should not be used in an environment that contains explosives such as, but not limited to, gas, both natural and liquid, or any volatile solvent.

Essentials® is not liable for consequential or incidental damages arising from the breach of this, or any other, warranty whether expressed, implied, or statutory. Some states do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so the above exclusion may not apply to you. This warranty gives you specific legal rights, and you may also have other rights, which vary from state to state.
